OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT:— Filling up the vacancy caused by Tirumangapattam's appointment in the temple at Tirumangapattam

LAST REFERENCE.

Letter No. 267 dated 21st March 1903 from the Dy. Commissioner Mysore District.

The vacancy caused by Tirumangapattam's appointment on a salary of Rs 10 per mensem was attached to the Sri Ranga-nathaswami Temple at Tirumangapattam, the charge being met from the Temple funds. One Venkatasubba Dikshit held the appointment for sometime, and on his death in one Appanayya

Bhatta

who was quite unacquainted with the deceased, was appointed to the post in 1900, on a salary of Rs 5 per mensem, the pay attached to the post having been since reduced to Rs 5. He appears to have died about a year ago, and the Sub-Div Officer of French-Rocks thereupon temporarily appointed his son Krishnamachari to the said Post. Complaints having been received in this office from certain residents of Tirumayapatnam that the aforesaid Krishnamachari had been employed as a Copyist in the Munsiff's Court at Tirumayapatnam & that-

that he was incapable of teaching Yajurveda,
not knowing either Padas or Krama, a report was called for from the Dy Comr on the subject. The Asst - Dr Offg
Mr C. B. Seshagiri Rao recommended to the
Dy Comr that one year's time might be allowed to Krishnamurthi to learn Adhyayanas completely and that in the meanwhile one Nagamadhani of Kurur, who, he said, was in every way qualified, might be temporarily appointed as Yajurveda Teacher.

Mr. Kantaraj Urs has expressed it as his opinion that the vacancy should have been reported to Govt as directed in Govt no 1057-65½ dated Revg Fr 90-93
14th April 1894, that that the Sub-Div Officer temporarily appointed the son of the deceased (Krishnamothi); and that as Krishnamothi has not completed 2 years and as he is willing to complete it within a year, the office may be temporarily filled up by appointing one Nagamadhi of Kurur
as since recommended by the Sub-Div Officer

As the appointment is not a hereditary one, there is no reason why the vacancy should be kept waiting for the son of the deceased until he qualifies himself for the place.

As Nagendrakumar, the temporary incumbent is reported to be well qualified for the post, he may be given the place permanently on Rs. 5 per mensem.

Sir,

With reference to your docket No. 78 dated 25th June 1902 regarding the Yajnumeda teacher's appointment in Sri Ranganatha Swami temple at Seringapatam, I have the honor to submit herewith the Sub divisional Officer's docket No 486 dated 4th January 1903 together with its enclosures. I think Government order No. 1057-65 dated Muz 2-90-93

14th April 1894 applies to this case also as it is not one of the appointments referred to in para 3 of that order which may be temporarily filled up in anticipation of sanction - However as the temporary appointment has been already made by the Sub division Officer on the ground that Krishnavadhani who has been complained of by the petitioners as being unfit to teach Yajurveda, has been found by him to be quite fit to succeed his father, as he is willing to learn Adhyayana completely within a year, the office being again temporarily filled up by the Nagavadhani of Karur in the meantime. I beg that Government may be pleased to accord sanction to this arrangement

With reference to the above, I have the honour to State that on

On the death, in 1900, of Appranneya avadhani, Vajurveda teacher, the Amildar recommended one Srinivasiengar for the vacant post. On enquiry it was ascertained that the deceased had left a son by name Krishnaavadhani, and that he was a Copyist in the Munsiff's Court.
His Krishnavadhani had Completed "ಅಧ್ಯಯನ" in Vajurveda and appeared Competent to succeed his father. He was accordingly appointed to the post tendatively for one year, the office being a hereditary one vide Order no 565 dated the 14th November 1901 to the Amildar of Seringapatam from this Office.

The Amildar now (in his Ittika no 45 of the 3rd October 1902) reports that Krishnavadhani is willing to learn Adhyana
